

Guest Chef Intro – Bluefin Bay Family of Resorts
Fall Food & Wine Lovers Weekend 2016

Guests who join us for our Fall 2016 Food and Wine Lovers Weekend are in for a momentous treat! We are thrilled beyond thrilled to announce that the Minneapolis-based chef power couple of Jamie Malone and Erik Anderson will be our Guest Chef Duo. Both are nationally acclaimed for their work in restaurants local and around the country.

If you consider yourself a “Foodie” — and we suspect many of you do — we don’t need to say much more. Anderson and Malone are known as a culinary power couple in the Twin Cities. Both have been named Food & Wine Magazine’s “Best New Chefs” — Anderson in 2012 and Malone in 2013.

For well over a year now, the culinary world has been buzzing with news of their forthcoming and hotly anticipated new restaurant, Brut. We understand it will be opening in Minneapolis' North Loop early in 2017. Brut will feature the famous Chef Duo’s unique style of French-inspired cooking. The name Brut is in reference to the dry-to-the-taste sparkling wine.

Speaking of wine...Of course, our Fall Food & Wine Lovers Weekend event wouldn’t be complete with the awesome wine pairings of Stuart Sutherland and team of Johnson Brothers. Stuart and team will be working with the famous Chef Duo pairing wines with the four and five course dinners at both our Friday and Saturday night events. As in past years, he will also be hosting a wine tasting and education event on Saturday.

For now, the Fall Food & Wine Lovers menu is top secret, but we know it will be surprisingly great and we can’t wait! We’ll learn more about the plans for Brut and its opening, and get a delicious and inspired preview for our taste buds at our Fall Food & Wine Lovers event.

We expect all of our weekend events to be full, so please RSVP ....
